READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY

First Reading

Isaiah 25:6 - 10a (142A)

Isaiah prophesied, "On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide... a feast of rich food and choice wines... The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every face... The hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain."

Second Reading:

Philippians 4:12 - 14, 19 - 20

Paul wrote, "I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry." When people share each other's hardships, God supplies their needs fully in Christ Jesus.

Gospel:

Matthew 22:1 - 14 or 22:1 - 10

Jesus likened God's reign to a great wedding banquet that a king gave for his son. Many were invited; some ignored the invitation. One guest was thrown out for disrespectful dress. In God's reign, "many are invited, but few are chosen."

STEWARDSHIP: A WAY OF LIFE

In today's second reading, St. Paul thanks the Philippians for being willing to share in hardships and promises that God, in turn, will fully supply all their needs. Our God truly cannot be outdone in generosity!

ADMINISTRACION CRISTIAN: MANERA DE VIVIR:

En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pablo agradece a los Filipenses por compartir de buena voluntad en su penuria y promete que Dios, a su vez, les provera de lleno en todas sus necesidades. ¡Verdaderamente nuestro Dios no puede ser superado en generosidad!

Hurricane Ike Relief Effort

We have all been challenged by the aftermath of Hurricane Ike along the Texas Gulf Coast. As we recover we begin to recognize the blessings and strength of endurance we have received through Christ's merciful love. We also become more aware of the needs of those still enduring the after effects. In Christ we seek to bring assistance to those in need and the question comes to mind, "How can I help?" As His children we are called to return God's love with a grateful heart and we can do this very simply by our prayers, our time and through a financial gift...

What you can do:

- 1) Pray for all affected by this tragedy.
- 2) Help your neighbor—give of your time and talent. Contact your parish, area Catholic school, or a local relief organization working in your community.
- 3) Make a donation to recovery efforts through these official organizations of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston:
  - a) The Hurricane Ike Recovery Fund benefiting the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston and the Diocese of Beaumont, Or contact the development office at 713.652.4417. If you wish to designate your gift to a specific parish community or Catholic school, please let us know the name of the community and we will direct your gift to them.
  - b) Catholic Charities at www.catholiccharities.org or call 713.524.1904.
  - c) The Society of St. Vincent de Paul at www.sdvdp-houston.org, or call 713.741.8234 for financial or in-kind donations.

Only the above organizations are authorized to solicit your assistance for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston.

ST. AUGUSTINE CATHOLIC SCHOOL

We are very excited to announce that Ms. Mary Ellen Kruse has been selected to attend The Voyager Program sponsored by NASA. There were only 60 available slots for this program through out the Region IV area. Also of note, the school submitted two grants this week. One grant was written to assist us in obtaining a program called "Motivation Math". If awarded this grant we will receive $3,000.00. The other grant will assist our students in community service projects. This grant is in the amount of $500.00. Please say a prayer that we receive either one or both of these grants!

Word of Life

God's creation is one and it is good. The concerns for non-violence, sustainable development, justice and peace, and care for our environment are of vital importance for humanity. They cannot, however, be understood apart from a profound reflection upon the innate dignity of every human life from conception to natural death: a dignity conferred by God himself and thus inviolable.

Palabra de Vida

La creacion de Dios es unica y es buena. La preocupacion por la no violencia, el desarrollo sostenible, la justicia y la paz, el cuidado de nuestro entorno, son de vital importancia para la humanidad. Pero todo esto no se puede comprender prescindiendo de una profunda reflexion sobre la dignidad innata de toda vida humana, desde la concepcion hasta la muerte natural, una dignidad otorgada por Dios mismo y, por tanto, inviolable.
